In the Courthouse)
)

Administrative Order No. 116

ORDER

Only United States Marshals and Court Security Officers are authorized to carry firearms, batons, and tasers on the entire eighth floor, and the area around the courtrooms and chambers of the sixth and seventh floors of the United States Courthouse, and in and around the United States Bankruptcy Courts and the United States Court of Appeals in the Customs House. No other law enforcement officer, state or federal, shall enter upon these floors in possession of a firearm, baton, or taser, unless the same is, or is expected to be, an exhibit in a case, or unless such law enforcement officer is responding to an emergency, is under escort by the United States Marshals Service or Federal Protective Service, is in the process of escorting a prisoner to the Marshal's cellblock, or is in the process of transporting a prisoner before a United States Magistrate Judge or United States District Judge for an initial appearance. All firearms and weapons to be used as evidence in a case must be secured, made safe and inspected by the United States Marshals Service before being brought into any courtroom.
